HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY !

JOYEUSE SAINT-VALENTIN !

Emmanuelle C.

Qu'elle est belle!
Plus beau sourire, plus belle fille
peuvent-ils animer coeur?
*****

Kim,

One day in December, my heart betrayed me so that I wanted to tear it out, as an oft painful infatuation was not extinguished but had only been smouldering. Your intelligence, eloquence, and beauty fill me with awe; yet I know not what you think or how you feel. How I wish that I could. Please choose from among three figurative roses: the white, the pink, the red; or none.
*****

Dear Jeremy,

Your criticisms so unwarranted make me
lose sleep.
When I read what you wrote I wanted to weep.
Has the love we once knew all been for naught?
Have you forgotten the nights we smoked pot?
Please recant, and return to the rapture
we knew I'm too old and too tired to woo someone anew.

S. Scott

TW,

Will you ever know how much I love you?

He who waits anxiously

A mes 5 valentines préférées,

Je vous envoie tous le même message
Par le biais de ce court passage Chaque jour, vous me faites sentir votre présence qui me fait tant frémir.
Sans vous, je n'aurais aucune motivation ne serait-ce qu'une simple participation à tous ces cours de droit, parfois longs.
Je profite donc de l'excellente occasion
D'exprimer, ce que je retiens depuis longtemps
le fait que je vous aime énormément!

irresistable.
Let's spend some time together...

From a daring heart.

Dear Alycia,

My heart pounds when you are near
I get a jolt when you appear

I don't know if it's love or fear

ANNOUNCEMENTS - ANNONCES

WINTER TERM COURSE VERIFICATION - All students are reminded they should verify their winter term courses at the Students Affairs Office during Feb. 5 - 14 inclusive. Graduating students must verify their final record, and should also check the list of graduating students for errors. Detailed verification instructions are posted on the counter in the S.A.O.

Second term examination numbers will also be issued at this time. Please remember to show your I.D. card.

EDUCATIONAL EQUITY - The Academic Assistance Committee would like your views about implementing a voluntary tutorial programme for all years. Le but de ce programme sera d'aider les étudiants dans les cours où ils ont de la difficulté. Please direct your comments to Tanya Goldberg at 937-5764 or leave a message for her at S.A.O. Please do so promptly. Thank you for your cooperation.

JUSTICE FOR NATIVES? - title of this year's conference organized by the Aboriginal Law Association. Does justice for Natives exist in the current system? If not, why not? Is the system fundamentally flawed? Are there alternatives? Would a separate native justice system be a "cop out" as Kim Campbell has suggested? Would preserving the current system be at the expense of First Nation's peoples?

Conference panelists will tackle some of these questions. It's on Wednesday, February 12, all day. You should go. It might challenge your understanding of what "law" means. Whether you aspire to learn law or purport to teach it, Wednesday's conference will probably give you some new perspectives. Expand your mind. Challenge your thinking.

LEGAL THEORY WORKSHOP - Friday February 14, at 12 noon in room 202. Professor Margaret Jane Radin, Professor of Law at Stanford University, will deliver a talk "Evaluating Government Reasons for Changing Property Regimes." Professor Radin has written widely influential pieces on Property and Personality, the Rule of Law, Pragmatism and Feminism, Justice and the Market Domain, Market-Inalienability. Everyone is invited. A copy of her paper is available to students at the Law Library's Reserve Section.

HOCKEY PLAYERS WANTED - HOCKEY GAME STUDENTS VS PROFS - We are trying to organize a hockey game with the students against the pros (Co-Ed). The only ice time we could get for that game is Monday February 24th 1992 from 5h00 to 6h00 pm at the McGill Arena. We need to pay the ice time before February 13th so we would like to know if there are enough people to have the game. There will be a list posted on the sports board so please put your name on it if you want to play. Every player must bring his/her own equipment because the equipment room at the arena will be closed on the day of the game. At the same time, we would like to remind the Public Offenders, the Malum in Se and our coaches that there will be a 2nd annual pot luck dinner at the apartment of Sophie "I'm in control" A. and Jennifer "The Goon" Z. on March 13th 1992. Your hostesses will keep you posted for the potluck later on in the month. For now just book that evening. It would be great if everyone could come.

For more info on the hockey game you can call Sophie at 284-2695. We also hope to have a lot of spectators at the game!

INSTITUTE OF COMPARITIVE LAW AND DEPARTMENT OF JEWISH STUDIES - Prof. Ernest J. Weinrib, Professor of Law and Special Lecturer in Classics of the University of Toronto, will give a lecture on "The Foetus as Aggressor : Maimonides on Abortion". It will be held on February 20, 1992 at 16h00 in room 202. All welcome.

TEACHER, TEACHER, TEACH ME...

Prof. Webber,

Your change of course is totally unconstitutional. Did you think you'd get off scott-free? You used to be so civil- you were my property and I held you in trust. Whereas I once used & enjoyed your fruits, now I only feel alienated. I feel so dismembered. However, I suppose it's unfair to Hogg you all for myself. So hey, let's get into some search & seizure. Use your arms of government to separate my powers. Expropriate my love - it's your prerogative. By the way, is that a section 1 in your pocket, or are you just happy to see me?

*****

Pothier,

With or without your glasses
They'll love you in New/Old England
But we'll miss you here
Happy Valentines Day!

Your two favourite women.

Dear Professor Pat H.,

If I was a girl....

By the way, don't forget to close completely the door of the bathroom besides your officewhen you go in to comb your hair.

You sure look good.

A guy who wishes he was a girl.

*****

Prof. Toope,

Bertha's gone now- why not ride my fences for a while?

Prof. Clarkson,

My love for you is a mortal illness that only you can cure. I lose all will power when I'm near you. Thoughts of you fill my disposing mind and memory. You have my consent, initiative and volition....so accept my gifts and take every liberality with me. Divest me of my ownership. We can divide by head or by roots - whichever makes you happy. I'm not into abnormal successions, but some of my juridical acts will incapacitate you for days. This is no false representation - I'm insane with passion. don't let outside interferences get in the way of my undying love.

Mrs. Lederer,

Every year since I first came to law school, you've told us, during exam period, to «take a deep breath.» Ilana, no instruction was necessary! When I look into your eyes, I see one stunning woman! You are so filled with passion. I tremble at the knees when you walk into the room. You've captured my heart and more. Alas, I am graduating this year. Farewell my sweet - hide your tears.

signed, D.B.C.

My Dear Pothier,

I give you all my love.....and my civil code.

love forever,

Domat.

Prof. Jobin,

My, what a long contract you have. I want to interpret your clauses and read between your lines. Give me a loan, not a deposit, because I want to use and enjoy you, not merely hold you, we can do it in a parking lot, but if we go to a hotel you'll get back twice what you give me. You have my consent, now accept my offer. When our minds have met, our bodies will follow. You've got a great Wabasso.

*****

Prof. Casey,

This is a private offering to you, my white knight. I want your company. I need that big corporation of yours to merge with mine so we can be one corporate entity. Accept my offer and we'll have a partnership made in heaven. I dream of holding your firm assets. So take me over and we'll rumple the balance sheet all night long.

By some strange coincidence, I was in Detroit in August of 1991. So were you!

I saw you at the woodbridge tavern one evening. You were with a bunch of your friends. You had the whole place jumping with your rendition of «twist & shout». It was then that I fell for you.....in a big way!

Since that time, I've been wanting to meet you. But I'm too shy. I'm a second year law student who realizes that you're graduating this year. My time is running out. But I will meet you soon. Promise.
When we get together, you

To the mountain guy.....

With you, I'll discover your mountains, climb on top of them and feel that the world is ours, just waiting for us to take it.

With you, I'll cuddle up in your reassuring arms next to a fire, I'll lose myself in your loving eyes, warm up with your tender smile.

With me, you'll walk on my empty beaches, and listen to the ocean whispers, you'll watch the sun come down and lighten the water, you'll feel free like a seagull.....

With me, you'll share very special moments, meaningful looks, happy loving interludes, complicity and tenderness ....

Together, we'll keep that twinkling magical passion burning... Together, soon, we'll say those few sweet words that our hearts are longing to share.

001,

in the past year, a lot of things have changed:

-the "wimp" has become "suave & debonaire" -a shy individual can call you now without the help of a 15 minutes motivating session with Aerosmith.

-the need to annihilate the tree hugging, left leaning whiners in this faculty is becoming an urgent matter

-new evidence that Wilson J. was senile in her last years on the bench is being uncovered by reputable "depanneur" tabloids and a lot has not:

-the lucid & clairvoyant opinions of McIntyre are still not being recognized for their brilliance

-this faculty is still filled with gossip-hungry mutants who have nothing better to do with their lives but speculate and probe into other people's lives

-the maintenance people still have not figured out how to operate the heating system in the library.

However, the thing that I have come to value the most in this past year is the source of strength and happiness that you have become in my life.

Happy Valentine's Day Sweetie,

In the many years that we've known each other, I've kept certain thoughts buried deep within my passionate heart. Here are the words I've repressed for so long, my sweet: "In the case of Doyle, the Court evinced a willingness to abandon the distinction between loss of jurisdiction over the offence and over the person. Section 440.1, however cannot be interpreted as embracing both eventualities".
